Gloria Duchin Designs Exclusive Collection for the Newport Mansions

East Providence, RI -- November 28, 2005 -- Gloria Duchin Inc., a leading manufacturer specializing in seasonal, handcrafted metal work, all made in the USA, announced today that they have designed and manufactured an exclusive collection of ornaments and keepsakes for The Preservation Society of Newport County.

The collection includes detailed re-creations of well-known Newport Mansion icons cast in matte gold and bronze finishes, with select styles delicately accented with Swarovski crystals. The designs include a 3-dimensional acorn, a dimensional jeweled crown and a dimensional pineapple ornament and placecard holder.

The pieces will be displayed on the holiday trees in the Newport Mansions this winter including The Breakers, Marble House and The Elms. The entire collection is available for purchase at the Newport Mansions stores at The Breakers, The Elms, Marble House and Bannister's Wharf and online at The Preservation Society of Newport County's website: www.newportmansions.org.

About The Preservation Society of Newport County

The Preservation Society of Newport County, Rhode Island's largest cultural organization, preserves and protects the best of Newport County's architectural heritage. Its 11 historic properties and landscapes form a complete essay of American historical development from the Colonial era through the Gilded Age.
